CIVIL MINUTES - GENERAL

Case No.	SACV 11-0485 AG (AJWx)	Date	June 18, 2013
Title	LISA LIBERI, et al. v. ORLY TAITZ, et al.

PENDING REQUESTS TO FILE MOTIONS

1. The request by Defendants Defend Our Freedoms Fund, Law Offices of Orly Taitz, and Orly Taitz, Inc., to file an Anti-SLAPP motion is DENIED.
2. Defendants Defend Our Freedoms Fund, Law Offices of Orly Taitz, and Orly Taitz, Inc. have also made a request to file a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(1) and a motion for sanctions. The Court GRANTS this request as to the motion to dismiss. In light of the concerns stated by the Ninth Circuit, the motion to dismiss, the corresponding opposition, and the reply shall not exceed 15 pages each. Declarations, exhibits, and any other documents will count toward the page limit. All defendants may join this motion. The Court DENIES the request to file a motion for sanctions, but sanctions may be sought in the motion to dismiss.
3. Defendant Orly Taitz's request to file a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6) and strike under Rule 12(f) is GRANTED. Again, in light of the concerns stated by the Ninth Circuit, the motion, opposition, and reply in this matter shall not exceed 15 pages each. Declarations, exhibits, and any other documents will count toward the page limit. All defendants may join this motion.

The deadline for filing these motions is 30 days from the date of this Order. Further, a party seeking relief with either of these motions necessarily will be deemed to have waived any Anti-SLAPP right to an automatic stay pending appeal. The Court reminds the parties that the filing of frivolous motions may result in sanctions.

PENDING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE SANCTIONS

The Court's January 23, 2013 Order to Show Cause why Defendant Orly Taitz should not be sanctioned is DISCHARGED.
